

TOWN OF HOPKINOTN
GENERAL BYLAW

Chapter 158

SALE OF LAND

§158-1. Authority of Selectmen to sell certain real estate.

[HISTORY: Adopted by the Annual Town Meeting of the Town of Hopkinton 3-9-1966
ATM, Art. 28. Amendments noted where applicable.]

~ 158-1. Authority of Selectmen to sell certain real estate.

The Selectmen are authorized to sell at private sale to the Conservation Commission any of the real estate which the town may have acquired or may hereinafter acquire through proceedings based upon nonpayment of taxes or under proceedings for the sale of land of low value; provided, however, that such lands are in or adjacent to marshes, rivers or swamps or adjacent to real estate owned by the town or under the control of the Conservation Commission and to execute and deliver in the name and under the Seal of the town a quitclaim deed or other appropriate instrument necessary to effectuate the conveyance of said lands.
